West Lake WSJ Emshwiller Questions 7.16.14.docx

Curtis and Mary,

The list of unanswered questions from WSJ/John Emshwiller keeps growing. Just received another one within the past hour, which now makes four unanswered rounds since July 9.

I'm attaching here a document that captures all of Emshwiller's recent questions to us, and to the extent we have developed them, the answers that we have provided or suggested to provide.

I am asking again for specific guidance on how you prefer that we respond. I know that at least some of my messages passing these along to you and others became lost in the chaff of the Administrator's visit last week, and in the time crunch of Monday's and Tuesday's meetings. It would really be to our benefit if we could provide these answers soon, in one delivery.
